La table Loire et Sens

Website: <http://www.loireetsens.com/fr/>

“La table Loire et Sens” invites you to taste seasonal cuisine in a lush and refined setting. Thanks to the Chef, Regis Legain together with Martin Favry and Elliot Lhumeau and their team, you will discover a modern gourmet cuisine based on seafood and local products.

Spend the afternoon in the “Château de Brissac”

Château de Brissac

<http://www.chateau-brissac.fr/>

The “Chateau de Brissac” (Brissac Castle) located near the city of Angers, is a historically listed building by the french minister of culture.

The “Château de Brissac” is owned by the Cossé-Brissac family since 1502. The descendants of the first family, the Marquis, his wife and their four children, still live in the castle.

The castle has seven stories altogether, making it the tallest castle in the Loire Valley. The architecture is characterized by his baroque style.

You will enjoy a guided visit lasting 1h30 including the castle and the wine cellar, ending with a wine tasting.
