

WORKSHOP

Economic Experiments for EU Agricultural Policy Evaluation: Methodological challenges

6-7 JUNE 2017

Amphi. TILLION

Maison de la recherche Germaine Tillion

5 bis boulevard Lavoisier – ANGERS | FRANCE

Information and registration :

granem.univ-angers.fr

Any question?

experimentscapevaluation@gmail.com

TUESDAY 6 JUNE, 14h – 19h

14h

Welcome and introduction

Scientific committee

14h30

How to choose the best format within the portfolio

Sophie Thoyer, Raphaële Préget, Anne Rozan

15h15

Replicability and generalizability of economic experiments results

Maria Espinosa, Marie Ferré

16h45

How to recruit farmers as participants to economic experiments?

*Round table Chair: Uwe Latacz-Lohman
With the participation of Douadia Bougherara, Anne Rozan,
Fabian Thomas, Florence Gramond and Nicolas Sauget*

18h15

Using economic experiments for agricultural policy evaluation in Lower Saxony

Stefanie Engel

19h

Wine tasting

20h30

Dinner in town

WEDNESDAY 7 JUNE, 9h – 16h

9h

How to present economic experiments

*Round table Chair: Marianne Lefebvre and Jesus Barreiro-Hurlé
With the participation of European Commission
(DG Agriculture and Joint Research Center), OECD, INRA, French Ministry of agriculture*

10h30

Designing DCEs to inform incentive-based schemes: lessons learned & challenges ahead

Klaus Glenk

11h45

Online versus face-to-face: quantifying interviewer bias in DCE surveys

Uwe Latacz-Lohmann

12h

Towards launching RCT in Europe

Ulrich Morawetz, Yann Raineau

13h

Lunch

14h

World café

*Building-up a network of researchers and experts to advocate the use of economic experiments for agricultural policy evaluation
All participants*

15h15

What's next?

Scientific committee

Speakers (alphabetical order)

Jesus BARREIRO-HURLE, European Commission, Joint Research Centre – Spain

Douadia BOUGHERARA, INRA – France

François DESSART, European Commission, Joint Research Centre – Belgium

Stefanie ENGEL, Osnabrück University, Institute of Environmental Systems Research – Germany

Maria ESPINOSA, European Commission, Joint Research Centre – Spain

Marie FERRÉ, ETH Zürich – Switzerland

Vanina FORGET, Centre d'études et de Prospective Ministère de l'agriculture, de l'agroalimentaire et de la forêt – France

Florence GRAMOND, BVA market research – France

Klaus GLENK, Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) – United Kingdom

Jussi LANKOSKI, OECD, Trade and Agriculture Directorate, Environment Division – France

Uwe LATACZ-LOHMANN, Kiel University – Germany

Marianne LEFEBVRE, Université d'Angers, IUT et GRANEM – France

Ulrich MORAWETZ, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences Vienna (BOKU) – Austria

Yves PLEES, European Commission, DG AGRI, studies and evaluation unit – Belgium

Raphaële PREGET, INRA – France

Yann RAINEAU, AgroParisTech / ISVV-Université de Bordeaux – France

Anne ROZAN, ENGEES, University of Strasbourg – France

Alban THOMAS, INRA and TSE – France

Fabian THOMAS, Osnabrück University, Institute of Environmental Systems Research – Germany

Sophie THOYER, Montpellier Supagro, Lameta – France

Scientific committee

Uwe Latacz-Lohmann, Marianne Lefebvre, Raphaële Préget, Sophie Thoyer

Local organizing committee

Monique Bernier, Serge Blondel, Thomas Coisnon, Gemma Davies, Marianne Lefebvre,

Marianne Lumeau, Marie-Christine Passignat, Masha Pautrel, Damien Rousselière, Marjorie Tendero

Reading suggestions

Colen L., Gomez-y-Paloma S., Latacz-lohmann U., Lefebvre, M., Préget, R., Thoyer S. (2015) (How) can economic experiments inform EU agricultural policy?, JRC Science and Policy Report, EUR 27496 EN

Colen, L., Gomez y Paloma, S., Latacz-Lohmann, U., Lefebvre, M., Préget, R. and Thoyer, S. (2016), Economic Experiments as a Tool for Agricultural Policy Evaluation: Insights from the European CAP. Canadian Journal of Agricultural Economics 64: 667-694.

doi: 10.1111/cjag.12107